

CLOCKS AND SILVERWARE CHEAP FOR A FEW DAYS.

We are about to REFIT OUR ENTIRE STORE. New Wall Cases will be put in on both sides, in order to give us a great deal more show case room than we now have.

Our new Cases will be ready April 15th; our old ones are sold and part of them shipped. We have either to sell off all CLOCKS and SILVERWARE, or else pile them up in the back room for three weeks.

We therefore will offer a discount of 10 per cent from the price of ALL CLOCKS, CASTERS, ICE PITCHERS, CAKE BASKETS, TEA SETS and all kinds of SILVERWARE bought of us between now and April 15th, 1882.

This 10 per cent discount will be given off from prices already lower than can be found in Decatur. If you think of getting a Clock, or any article of Silverware soon, it will pay you to buy now.

When our store is completed, we will be better able to display lots of goods we have been obliged to keep in drawers and the safe, and intend to enlarge our already large variety of goods.

Yours Respectfully,

OUR old friend, Mr. Henry B. Funk, of Monticello, who was once a member of the Decatur press corps, is out with another song set to music, a copy of which has just reached us. It is a very pretty song and chorus, entitled, "Darling Magdalena," price 35 cents. Send for it.

THE penalty for tilling punched coins is a fine of not more than $3,000 or of an imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, as the judge before whom the offender is tried may see fit. Such an act is regarded in law as a criminal offense, technically forgery, hence the severe punishment attached thereto.

THE Odd Fellows of Monticello and Platt county will celebrate the 57th anniversary of their organization on Wednesday of next week. Good music and speakers have been provided and it is intended to make the celebration an interesting one. Decatur members of the triple link order will be made welcome should they visit Monticello on the 26th.

THE city council of Springfield has provided for a city election under the newly adopted general law, to be held on the 9th day of May. At that time it will be the duty of the voters to choose a mayor, city clerk, city attorney, city treasurer and two aldermen from each ward. There are seven wards instead of six as under the old charter. There will therefore be 14 aldermen to elect, making an entire new council. The above is the course Decatur might have pursued a year ago.

THE PRIZE SPOON.

Decatur and Clinton Men Ahead and Jubilation—Pioneers Disgraced.

During yesterday there were about five hundred persons at the fair grounds to witness the exhibition of skill attending the second grand tournament given by the Decatur Shooting Club, which organization is now only four months old. The cash prizes offered, as stated in these columns last evening, aggregated $500, and about that sum of money changed hands yesterday, the greater portion of it being won by Decatur marksmen, some going to Clinton, Champaign and Elkhart. The Decatur shooters came to Decatur in full force and expected to make their own terms and carry off the cream of the cash of the contests; but they got left badly, going home last night more or less disgraced with the visit and themselves in particular. They will be meeker when they "come again," and in the meantime, if they will allow us to volunteer a bit of advice, they should devote two or three days out of each week to hard practice, so that when they participate in another match they will have some show of winning a prize in the third class at least.

THE PRIZES.
Below we give President Blume's report of the award of the more important prizes:

GLASS BALL SHOOTING.
Purse $20—Mills, of Clinton, first prize; Kemp, of Bement, second prize; Kepple, of Decatur, third prize.

Purse $20—Shoemaker, of Decatur, first prize; Abbott, of Decatur, second prize; Lawrence, of Elkhart, third prize.

Purse $15—Kemp, of Bement, first prize; Kepple, of Decatur, second prize; Mills, of Clinton, third prize.

Purse $25—Lawrence, of Elkhart, first prize; Kemp, of Bement, second prize; Sprague, of Clinton, third prize.

Purse $15—West, of Champaign, first prize; Partridge, of Champaign, second prize; Farrow, of Champaign, third prize.

Purse $10—Brelford, of Kenney, first prize; Farrow, of Clinton, second prize; Blume, of Decatur, third prize.

RIFLE SHOOTING.
20 Yards—Fans, first prize; Blume, second prize; Kepple, third prize—all of Decatur.

10 Yards—Fans, first prize; Blume, second—both of Decatur.

A Target Gallery.
On yesterday Mr. Thomas Lamb, who resides in the town of Bement, called at J. R. Race & Co.'s clothing house and presented ticket 12,182 which drew $15 in gold in the firm's gift distribution of prizes, drawn on January 2d last. Mr. Lamb held but three tickets, and did not learn that he had won a prize until about a week ago. Had he been a reader of the REPUBLICAN he would have been in possession of his gold dollars a few days after the drawing. However, he received his cash yesterday and returned home stepping high.

A Beique Party.
Miss Gussie Reid gave a very delightful beique party at her home on Water street last evening. The guests present were Misses Dora, of Charleston, Hattie Brown, May Edwards, Jennie Randolph, Messrs Edward Strohm, B. Bradley, E. S. Henry, J. E. Patterson, J. M. Ehrman and D. Bradley.

A Clever Troupe.
This is the kind of a send-off the Louisville Courier-Journal gave the troupe which is to appear here on Wednesday evening of next week.

A very clever specialty show was given at the Grand Opera House last night to a good audience by the Hyle & Behman Company. The features of the entertainment were John and Louise Tille, with their amusing family of Marionettes, the excellent musical act of Alfred Linton, Miss Clara Moore, in character songs and changes; the specialties of the Martelle Brothers; Miss St. George Hussey, in Irish male impersonations; a most remarkable bicycle act by the Martelles, which was enthusiastically received; and the specialties of Harry Watson, Charles T. Ellis and Alice Hutchings. Mr. Watson is, doubtless, the funniest grotesque Dutch comedian on the stage, and both in his turns and in the afterpiece he kept the audience continually laughing. The performance, as a whole, is a good one, and deserves the patronage of those who like specialty shows. It will be repeated to-night.

Popular prices.
MR. S. OVERMIRE wishes us to correct the statement that he will sell his residence to ex-Gov. Oglesby. He has not, neither expects to, and is fitting it up simply because it needed to be done to compare with the residence of his first-class neighbors. It is now offered for sale. Ex-Governor Oglesby stated to a reporter this morning that he has engaged a suitable residence property at Lincoln, where he will reside with his family temporarily. He says he could not find a suitable dwelling in Decatur, and that he is compelled to locate elsewhere for the present. He states emphatically that Decatur is and always will be his home. The family will remove to Lincoln during next week.

Another Iowa Excursion.
The Illinois Central railroad will run another excursion to Manson, Storm Lake, Cherokee and Lenora, Iowa, leaving Decatur at 6:45 a. m., Tuesday, May 9. Fare for the round trip only $12. Return tickets good for 30 days. If you want cheap homes in this paradise of the west, where crops are abundant, money plenty, and the inhabitants handsome, healthy and happy, go on the excursion to Iowa. Remember the date—May 9th, and rate—only $12 for the round trip.

W. S. NICHOLS, Ticket agent.

Decatur's latest invention is a novelty, indeed, and is a promise to be a grand success. It is a combination kit of tools all in one piece, and can be carried in the pocket. It fills the bill admirably for all the following purposes: Monkey-wrench, bit-stock, claw-hammer, bolt cutter, riveting hammer, pipe wrench, tack hammer, cutting pliers, screw-driver, claw tool, stove handle and bootjack—making twelve different tools in a pocket combination, each one being perfect in itself. M. W. Jenks is the inventor, and has applied for a patent. He wants a partner to take a half interest.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Mrs. James W. Haworth Thrown from a Buggy this Noon.

At about noon to-day Mrs. James W. Haworth was thrown out of her buggy near her residence, but fortunately received but a few slight bruises, no bones being broken. She had been driving her well-known black team through the streets during the forenoon and had been accompanied for a short time by Mrs. C. M. Allison, but she was left at her home about half an hour before the accident occurred. While driving northward on Franklin street past the city park, the team became frightened at a piece of flying paper and suddenly started off on a run. They went galloping up the street, and Mrs. Haworth did her best to stop them but without success. On reaching Eldorado street at the Stapp's Chapel corner, the lady, who remained cool and collected despite her danger, caused the horses to turn east and she endeavored as best she could to compel them to turn into the Haworth lot, but they refused to obey. At this point the buggy slightly careened and Mrs. Haworth, still clinging to the lines, was thrown upon the street and against the boulevard. Friends rushed to her rescue expecting to find her badly injured, but she got up, asked as to the whereabouts of the horses and went into her house without assistance.

The team was caught near the Illinois Central railway. The only damage done to the buggy was the springing of a wheel and a few scratches.

A Decatur Club.
A movement is on foot in Decatur to organize a crack baseball club, whose members will go into training and get themselves in shape to play against professional teams in Springfield, Bloomington, Danville, Lincoln, Peoria, St. Louis, Chicago and other cities. The first preliminary meeting of ball tossers interested in this proposed formation was held at friend's headquarters last evening, when Mr. C. L. Schilling was chosen chairman and Mr. Lee S. Hall secretary. The scheme was fully discussed by those present. It was suggested that it would take considerable cash to equip the club, if formed, and also to provide it with suitable practice and play grounds. A committee, composed of J. H. O'Neill, Herman Martin, Fred Litterer and L. S. Hall, was appointed to interview our business men and citizens generally, for the prime purpose of ascertaining how they feel toward assisting the club in a financial way. The formation of a picked nine in Decatur is only a question of a few days or weeks.

The Robinson Surprise Party.
The home of Mr. Chris. Robinson, in the second ward last night was the scene of a big surprise, given in honor of the head of the family by his temperance and other friends. The invading party had met at Mr. McGurthy's residence and from thence proceeded in a body to the Robinson dwelling. The surprise was an immense success, and the supper, which was brought by the callers, was all that could have been desired. During the evening Mr. D. L. Bann, on behalf of the company, presented Mr. Robinson with a large and elegantly upholstered easy chair as a slight token of their regard. The pleased recipient responded in fitting words.

Those present were Messrs Lucy McIsenheimer, Capitola Goodman, Nannie Constant, Maggie Gomers, Isadore Lann, Hattie Goodman, Sallie McRoberts, Katie Lann, Beekie McRoberts, Mammie Muzzy, Dinneen, Ella McRoberts, Mammie Muzzy, Judge Nelson, Joseph Brewster, Samany Brewster, Capt. Post, John Dinneen, D. L. Bann, Theodore Nelson, James H. Constant, Charles E. Padgett, Ellis McGurthy, Willie Brewster, J. J. Garver, Mrs. I. N. Coltrin, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lannham, Mrs. Geo. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. August Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Melville, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McGurthy, Mrs. J. B. Fielder and daughter, Mrs. Samuel McRoberts, Mrs. Maggie Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. John Alloway.

"Virginia."
John McCullough is firmly established as one of the greatest of living tragedians and his popularity is universal. Our play-goers will yield him a cordial welcome next Friday evening, when he appears at the opera house in Sheridan Knowles' tragedy, "Virginia." As the Roman father Mr. McCullough stands alone. His magnificent physique, his grand voice, and his great intellectual endowments enable him to fill the massive and heroic role as can no other actor upon our stage. In England his was the greatest success ever won by an American actor abroad, and at home he is playing to overcrowded houses. Mr. McCullough will appear here on Friday evening, April 20th. Seats will be placed on sale at Curtis & Co.'s next Tuesday morning at eight o'clock.

An exchange thus fitly describes the meaning of the term "local enterprise": If you can think of anything that can be done to beautify or build up your town, go and do it. Keep your capital at home; patronize home industries; help your merchants to sell more so they can sell cheaper. Always get your work done in your own town if possible; subscribe and pay for the home paper—don't steal or borrow the reading of it. If you follow these suggestions and your town does not improve and build up, it will not be your fault.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Dr. Ruby, of Bement, was among the visitors to Decatur yesterday.

Mrs. J. H. Vennigerholz left to-day for a visit to relatives at Louisville, Ky.

Miss Ora Calvin is teaching in the vicinity of Mt. Zion.

Theo. D. Talmadge is a salesman in R. Liddle's queenware establishment.

Lewis C. Hall, a prominent farmer of Warrensburg, was in the city yesterday.

J. C. Buddock and F. A. Leforgue have exchanged places of residences.

Hon. Thomas Snell, of Clinton, was in the city to-day for a few hours.

James Lichtenberger paid us a call last evening. He reports winter wheat looking splendidly in Wilmot township.

Mrs. Davis May's condition remains unchanged. She has been ill for several weeks.

James C. Lake will probably be heard from to-morrow on the mayoralty question.

John Hamilton is the engineer in the employ of Roach, McReynolds & Lunn, brickmakers, east of the city.

Miss Dollie Millikin was to have sailed for Europe during next week. She has postponed her departure until about May 10th.

Ferd. Turner, one of the Kenney bloods, took in the shooting match at this place yesterday, but failed to carry away any of the spoils.

E. D. Price, agent for John McCullough, met Manager Haines in Decatur last night and completed arrangements for the presentation of "Virginia."

John McCullough will play "Virginia" in Decatur one week from to-night. This is John's greatest character, and the one which has placed him at the head among the tragedians of the day.

Lincoln Journal: Capt. James H. K. Krick removed his family to Decatur to-day. He is engaged in selling the Singer sewing machine, and travels over five counties.

David Hutchison, Esq., who will be appointed by Mayor Waggoner as city attorney and will be confirmed by the council, is looking about for a suitable room in which to establish his office. He has been with Justice Albert for several months. His salary will probably be $800 for the year.

James C. Lake, who claims to be the mayor-elect of Decatur, arrived home from Springfield this forenoon. He got a few "pointers" while at the state capital, and unless the ballots be received on Tuesday and canvassed to-night, he will send his petition to one of the judges of the supreme court, asking that a mandamus will be issued calling upon the council to canvass the vote for mayor. Then will follow an argument before the supreme court judge that will occasion general interest among members of the legal profession of this and other cities and our people generally. Mr. Lake has no special desire to bounce Mr. Waggoner from his present exalted position. He wishes to have the much disputed point of law settled, and he feels the position he maintains—that he is now the legal mayor of Decatur—is the correct one. On the other hand, Mr. Waggoner holds that he has the advantage over the contestant. He has possession, and the police are at his command.

Among the visitors at the fair grounds on yesterday afternoon, were S. A. McWhorter, J. W. Baker, Harry Rollins and Frank D. Caldwell, who engaged in shooting contests, with W. W. Wilcox as referee. The team first tackled the rifles, but failing to jingle the bell attached to the "bull's eye," they became disgusted and turned their attention to the glass balls. Here they got in their work in good shape—Rollins, Caldwell and James Duffee bearing off the honors of the match—by failing to smash even one ball out of ten. It was noticed that while these "professionals" were shooting most of the people on the grounds got behind convenient trees and on the other side of the amphitheatre.

Temperance Convention.
Miss Frances E. Willard now acting as president of the W. C. T. U. calls a convention of the 13th and 14th districts to meet at Mattoon on the 25th and 26th of this month. She not only desires delegates, properly accredited, sent from all local W. C. T. U. unions, but fraternal delegates, gentlemen and ladies, from all churches. The ladies sending the delegates provide for their traveling expenses and the people of Mattoon furnish entertainment. Let Decatur be well represented. Pastors and temperance workers, send that action is taken in your church.
